WILL OUR LAWS PROTECT THE REF.

We do not know that the refugees from Arkansas have much to fear from requisitions of Gov. CLAYTON upon his coadjutor Gov. BROWNLOW, provided they do not permit themselves to be suspped up unprepared and kidnapped by the minions of either of those official law-breakers. Martial law has not yet been proclaimed in Shelby county; the civil authority is still supreme here; the writ of habeas corpus is not yet a dead whether benevolence, conscientious letter; the courts are above the Gover- casualty and compromise be their mos nor, and we doubt whether there is a prominent protuberances, to the end Judge to be found in this county who fer from the frauds now so common in would consign to the bloody hands of that department.
